You are whisked away by a helicopter for an afternoon of culinary indulgence at Lake House. The restaurant sits on the picturesque shores of Lake Daylesford. Linger between courses on the waterfront terraces or in amongst the six acres of manicured gardens. Executive Chef Alla Wolf-Tasker A.M. creates a seasonally inspired tasting menu of several courses featuring the best of the region's outstanding produce matched with wines by the glass. Alla's husband (and co-proprietor of Lake House) Allan is the resident artist and his paintings adorn the walls of the small luxury hotel and spa complex.
